Merciful God
teach us to be faithful in change and uncertainty, that trusting in your word and obeying your will we may enter the unfailing joy of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Today's Psalm is Psalm 90.1-6, 13-17

Lord, you have / been our / refuge
From one gene/ration / to a/nother.
Before the mountains were brought forth,
Or the earth and the / world were / formed,
From everlasting to ever/lasting / you are / God.
You turn us back to / dust and / say;
'Turn / back, O / children of / earth.'
For a thousand years in your sight are / but as / yesterday,
Which passes / like a / watch in the / night.
You sweep them away / like a / dream,
They fade away / suddenly / like the / grass.
In the morning it is / green and / flourishes;
In the evening it is / dried / up and / withered.
Turn again, O Lord; how long will / you de/lay?
Have com/passion / on your / servants.
Satisfy us with your loving-kindness / in the / morning,
That we may rejoice and be / glad / all our / days.
Give us gladness for the days / you have af/flicted us,
And for the years in which / we have / seen ad/versity.
Show your / servants your / works,
And let your / glory be / over their / children.
May the gracious favour of the Lord our God / be up/on us;
Prosper our handiwork; O / prosper the / work of our / hands.

A list of the departed will be read out during our All Souls' service next Sunday. The Years Mind List is on the noticeboard for you to check. Please make any amendments.

The Traidcraft stall will be open next week after both services.

The office will be closed this week, re-opening on Tuesday 4 November, usual office hours.

Each year we give a percentage of St James' Church income to support a number of charities. Please let Sue Wilson know if you would like to nominate a charity—by the middle of November.

Please pray for Amber, Matthew, Rhiannon and Sebastian who are preparing to be admitted to Holy Communion.

Actions from the PCC Meeting on Wednesday, 22 October

Name badges. The feedback on wearing name badges has been very positive, and the PCC decided to wear them until Christmas, and then review in the New Year.

We are looking for people to put the badges out, sorting them in alphabetical order, either on Saturday or Sunday morning.

St James 60th Anniversary. Thank you to all who gave feedback on the various suggestions. The congregational photo and 'Beating the Bounds' (ie walking round the parish boundaries saying prayers at various points along the way) got the most votes. The PCC thought it would also be important to do Prayer48 again, and we hope that there will be sufficient support from the congregation to make this possible.

Provisional dates at this point are:

Prayer48: 1-3 May 2015

Beating the Bounds: Sunday 14 June 2015 (The actual anniversary is 18 June)

St James Day, 19 July 2015: Festival Eucharist followed by BBQ/meal—details to be decided. Date for the photo to be announced. The PCC have an awayday in February when we will spend time reflecting on the mission of St James.

Would you be able to help?

Design a Christmas Card Competition. Please remember to hand in your Christmas card design on A4 paper/card by Wednesday 29 October, to the mailbox at St James or the office. The winner will be announced the following week.

Christmas Fair, 15 November, 12 noon. Please sign up to help, if you possibly can, and bring things to donate. Sign-up sheets are on the noticeboard. Flyers for distribution around the parish, and posters for display, are available from TODAY.

We are looking for someone who has the skill of making attractive posters on their computer to help with publicity. If you could help please speak to Jutta or one of the churchwardens.
