

Collect

Risen Christ,
you filled your disciples with boldness and fresh hope:
Help us to know your presence with us,
strengthen us to proclaim your risen life
and fill us with your peace,
to the glory of God the Father,

Alleluia

Alleluia, alleluia,
give thanks to the risen Lord,
alleluia, alleluia, give praise to his name.

Today's Psalm is: Psalm 4

Answer me when I call, O / God of my / righteousness;
you set me at liberty when I was in trouble;
have mercy on / me and / hear my / prayer:
how long will you nobles dis/honour my /glory;
how long will you love vain / things and / seek after / falsehood?
But know that the Lord has shown me his / marvellous / kindness;
when I call upon the / Lord, / he will / hear me.
Stand in / awe, and / sin not;
commune with your own heart upon your / bed, / and be / still,
Offer the / sacrifices of / righteousness
and / put your / trust in the / Lord.
There are many that say, ' Who will show us / any / good?'
Lord, lift up the / light of your / countenance up/on us.
You have put gladness / in my / heart,
more than when their corn and / wine and / oil in/crease.
In peace I will lie / down and / sleep,
for it is you Lord, only, who / make me / dwell in / safety.

Our APCM is today at 11.30 am. Papers are still available from the entrance foyer for those who have not yet taken a copy. All are welcome to attend. Pam Butler and Jacqui Worster are standing for re-election as church wardens again. We are also grateful to Rosemary Monk, Lesley Payne, Michael Smale and Tom Monie for volunteering to join the PCC—please check the notice boards in case we get more candidates.

Thank you to everyone who supported our recent coffee morning. We raised £128.50 on the morning and another £23.30 came in after our March coffee morning. Look out for our next coffee morning on 4 May.

Prayer48—1-3 May A big Thank you to all who have helped with the distribution of the prayer request cards. There are a few streets left, which we hope to cover in the next week.

The sign-up sheets for prayer slots and for the welcome desk are now up in the foyer. There are guidance notes for what to do if you have signed up to pray. Please take one, if you wonder what we are asking you to do. We hope that everyone who is around that weekend will be willing to spend some time praying at Church during the 48 hours. Please, speak to Mary Calladine or Jutta if you have any questions.

Christian Aid Week is from 10—16 May. This year we are not organising a house-to-house collection but will have envelopes to hand out with the weekly sheet. We will leave envelopes on the table in the entrance foyer, if you have friends or neighbours who might want to contribute. In the past we have raised more than £1700 during this week, and it is an important fundraiser for Christian Aid. Please give generously when the time comes.

Thank you so much to everyone who supported the recent Junior Sunday School's Card and Box Sale. Thanks to your generosity and the children's hard work, we raised £48.50 for the Red Cross Urgent Appeal to provide clean drinking water for children in Bangladesh and Kenya. The government has promised to 'match fund' this campaign, so nearly £100 will go towards the cause.

Would you be able to help?

We will be holding a garden tidy-up on Saturday 16 May between 10 am and 12 noon. All offers of help welcome. Tea and coffee will be provided. Look out for the sign up sheet on the noticeboard nearer the time. Bring your secateurs!

We would welcome any adults or children, 8 or over, to become servers in the sanctuary. This means processing into church, assisting the priest during the service and clearing away afterwards. You would be trained in what to do. You would probably be asked to serve about once a month as part of a team of 2 or 3. Even if children are part of the altar party they are still able to go to Sunday School. Please speak to one of the churchwardens, Alison Giles or Jennifer Day (regular servers).
