Today's Psalm is: Psalm 62.5-end

Wait on God alone in stillness, / O my / soul;
for in / him / is my / hope.

He alone is my rock and / my sal/vation,
my stronghold, so that / I shall / not be / shaken.

In God is my strength / and my / glory;

God is my strong rock; in / him / is my / refuge.

Put your trust in him / always, my / people;

pour out your hearts before him, for / God / is our / refuge.

The peoples are but a breath,

the whole human / race a de/ceit;

on the scales they are alto/gether / lighter than / air.

Put no trust in oppression; in robbery take no / empty / pride;

though wealth increase, / set not your / heart up/on it.

God spoke once, and twice have I / heard the / same,

that / power be/longs to / God.

Steadfast love belongs to / you, O / Lord,

for you repay everyone ac/cording / to their / deeds.

Today. We will need a few volunteers to stay behind after the 10 o'clock service please to help fold the stir-up application forms so that they can be taken into Queen Emma and Queen Edith schools during the week. Please stay and help—thank you.

Christmas Fair, this Saturday (14 November). CAKES, PRESERVES etc are required; also offers of SOUP, all gratefully received. There is a sign-up sheet on the noticeboard, please help if you can.

A big thank you to all those who supported the very successful Pumpkin Picnic during half term. Photographs and report to follow soon in Crosspiece.

A note from Jutta

"Thank you to all who made the journey to be with us on Thursday night for the licensing and who sent messages. It was lovely to see you all and to have your support as I start as priest-in-charge at St Thomas. I will continue to pray for you all, and ask for your prayers. Blessings, Jutta".

There are some suggestions for Advent/Christmas reading in the entrance hall: books which may help you focus your thoughts or expand your horizons during this reflective season. Please take a look, and if you would like to make a suggestion and could leave a copy of the book in church with a short description of why you find it useful, please speak to Max or Debbie. There is a short 'Reflections for Advent' book available for £2.99: please sign up if you would like a copy of this or any of the other books suggested.

Each year we give a percentage of St James' Church income to support a number of charities. Please let Sue Wilson know (via pigeonhole or in person) if you would like to nominate a charity—by the end of November.

Stir-up Saturday, 28 November, 10 am—12 noon. Anne Streater is running the workshop again this year and would be grateful for offers of help. A sign-up list is on the noticeboard. Please do not hesitate to contact Anne if you have any questions, 07962 006271.

Design a Christmas card competition. We are inviting all children/young people at St James, QE Chapel and the Chinese Church to take part in a competition to design this year's Christmas card which will be distributed to all households in our parish. Designs are to be on A4 paper or card with the child's name written clearly on the back. The deadline date is Sunday 15 November. Entries can be posted through the church letterbox or handed in to the office at St James'.

We are currently holding a course to prepare children for admission to Holy Communion on Wednesdays after school in the Study Centre. The admission will take place at the 10 o'clock service on Sunday 6 December. Thank you to those adults who are helping with the sessions. Please pray for Amy, Charlotte and Sam.

Women's World Day of Prayer. There will be a day of preparation on Friday 13 November from 10 am until 3 pm at the Wesley Church Centre on Christ's Pieces, in readiness for the service to be held in March on the theme of Receive Children, receive me. It would be good if someone from St James attended with Jane Hewer (C.279392). More details can be found on the noticeboard.
