If you are willing to be contacted, please let Caroline know in the office, asap, C.246419 or email stjameschurchcambridge@yahoo.co.uk Thank you.

Our next Coffee Morning with Bring & Buy is on Saturday 28 April. All donations of unwanted gifts, prizes for the raffle, small items of bric-a-brac gratefully received. Donations of cakes, particularly homemade, especially welcome. Thank you.

Bible Reading Fellowship Notes. Eight members of our congregation already use the BRF Notes which I order and distribute, and I'm wondering if any more people would like to give them a try. We have a regular order for St James's which means that postage is free. Seven different booklets are available and there are samples for you to look at in the foyer. Speak to me if you'd like more information or telephone C.243267. Judith Pinhey.

Prayer 48

This year St James will be encouraging people to engage with 48 hours of prayer between Friday 11th and Sunday 13th May. We will be inviting the local community to submit prayer requests, as before, but we will not be opening the church for the whole period. Instead, we will encourage the congregations from St James to take on a short period of time during the 48 hours during which they will pray. A timetable will be produced nearer the time. This will also tie in with Thy Kingdom Come, the Archbishops' initiative to encourage prayer in the days between Ascension and Pentecost.
