The Collect

Almighty God,
in whose service lies perfect freedom:
teach us to obey you
with loving hearts and steadfast wills;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Today's Psalm is: Psalm 104.1-10, 26, 35

Bless the Lord, / O my / soul.
O Lord my God, how / excellent / is your / greatness!
You are clothed with / majesty and / honour,
wrapped in / light as / in a / garment.
You spread out the heavens / like a / curtain and lay the beams of your dwelling place / in the / waters a/bove.
You make the / clouds your / chariot
and / ride on the / wings of the / wind.
You make the / winds your / messengers and / flames of / fire your / servants.
You laid the foun/dations of the / earth,
that it never should / move at / any / time.
You covered it with the / deep like a / garment;
the waters stood / high a/bove the / hills.
At your re/buke they / fled;
at the voice of your / thunder they / hastened a/way.
They rose up to the hills and flowed down to the / valleys be/neath,
to the place which / you had ap/pointed / for them.
You have set them their bounds that they / should not / pass,
nor turn a/gain to / cover the / earth.
O Lord, how manifold / are your / works!
In wisdom you have made them all;
the / earth is / full of your / creatures.
I will sing to the Lord as / long as I / live
I will make music to my God / while I / have my / being.

Name badges. We would very much like to encourage you to wear your name badges – it's a great way to help get to know each other and particularly helpful to those new to our congregation and for those on attachment.

We will be hosting a holiday lunch club here at St James' tomorrow. It is not too late to volunteer help with serving the food and with the children's activities. Please speak to Steve if you can help. Thank you.

Please sign the list on the noticeboard if you would like to help with tomorrow's 'Harvest' hymn service at Cherry Hinton Care Home at 2.15 pm.

The office is closed this week.

Don't forget! The clocks go back on Saturday, 27th.

Please return your completed Time and Talents questionnaires in the box in the foyer. If you haven't had one yet, do please take a form.

Only those who were here in the 1960s will remember Sheila Day who used to sing in our choir. Sheila became Sr Sheila at The Ditchingham community of All Hallows and later became Mother Superior there. Sheila will be worshipping with us at the 10 o'clock service next Sunday, together with Penny Grainger, another former member of the St James' choir and congregation. We warmly welcome both Sheila and Penny.

All Souls' service on 2 November. This is a time to remember people who have died. If you would like anyone remembered do come along to the service. If you are not able to come along please put the name(s) of your loved ones on the list on the noticeboard or speak to Steve.

A church of hospitality. One of the most important aspects of church life is how we offer hospitality to one another, to visitors, and to those who come to see what church is like. The role of a sides-person is vital to this as they are often the first person anyone meets as they enter the building. We would very much like to increase our team of sides-people so that this important ministry is part of our regular experience on a Sunday morning. If you would like to be a sides-person please have a word with the vicar.

Safeguarding. St John's Hills Road are hosting three safeguarding training events in the new year: Tuesday 12 February 7-9pm, Saturday 16 February 9am-1.30pm and Thursday 28 February 7-9pm. A reminder that all PCC members, pastoral visitors and people who work with vulnerable adults and children, need to have completed basic safeguarding training so this is a good opportunity to attend one of the courses at a local venue.

Coffee rotas are now in the pigeonholes.

Harvest. Thank you to all who decorated the church with flowers and produce and to all who contributed to the lunch.
