Today's Psalm is: Psalm 93

The Lord is king and has put on / glorious ap/parel;
the Lord has put on his glory
and / girded him/self with / strength.

He has made the whole / world so / sure that / it can/not be / moved.

Your throne has been es/tablished from of / old;
you / are from / ever/lasting.

The floods have lifted up, O Lord,
the floods have lifted / up their / voice;
the floods lift / up their / pounding / waves.

Mightier than the thunder of many waters, mightier than the / breakers of the / sea,
the / Lord on / high is / mightier.

Your testimonies are / very / sure;
holiness adorns your / house, O / Lord, for / ever.

The Collect

God the Father,
help us to hear the call of Christ the King
and to follow in his service,
whose kingdom has no end;
for he reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, one glory.

Gifts for the Women's Refuge. We are asking for gifts once more this year please – but they won't be used for Christmas presents. Our donations will be used as welcome gifts. Please bring along a gift (you can bring along an unwanted one) on Sundays, or to the office, early in the New Year. Donations still need to be brand new please and in their original cellophane/packing. The refuge will collect the gifts later in January.

One of the data gathering tasks for our Partnership for Missional Church project is to find one or two volunteers to spend a weekday morning at the church site (e.g. from 8 am to 1pm) to count the number of people who pass by. If you would be interested in helping, please talk to Bill Broadhurst after today's service, at rwb1002@cam.ac.uk or on Cambridge 572449.

Steven and Dawn would like to invite you all to join them this Saturday (1st Dec) for an Ely Cursillo morning of informal worship and witness, followed by an optional bring and share lunch at 12.30. This is a great opportunity for anyone who is interested in finding out more about Ely Cursillo. Come along and join us from 9.30 am for a cuppa before the 10 am start.
