Job 42.1-6, 10-end

Job Is Humbled and Satisfied

Then Job answered the LORD:
'I know that you can do all things,
and that no purpose of yours can be thwarted.
"Who is this that hides counsel without knowledge?"
Therefore I have uttered what I did not understand, things too wonderful for me, which I did not know.
"Hear, and I will speak;
I will question you, and you declare to me."
I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear,
but now my eye sees you;
therefore I despise myself,
and repent in dust and ashes.'

Job's Fortunes Are Restored Twofold

And the LORD restored the fortunes of Job when he had prayed for his friends; and the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before. Then there came to him all his brothers and sisters and all who had known him before, and they ate bread with him in his house; they showed him sympathy and comforted him for all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him; and each of them gave him a piece of money and a gold ring. The LORD blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning; and he had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand donkeys. He also had seven sons and three daughters. He named the first Jemimah, the second Keziah, and the third Keren-happuch. In all the land there were no women so beautiful as Job's daughters; and their father gave them an inheritance along with their brothers. After this Job lived for one hundred and forty years, and saw his children, and his children's children, four generations. And Job died, old and full of days.

Psalm 19.7-14

The law of the Lord is perfect, re/viving the / soul;
the testimony of the Lord is sure
and gives / wisdom / to the / simple.
The statutes of the Lord are right and re/joice the / heart;
the commandment of the Lord is pure
and gives / light / to the / eyes.
The fear of the Lord is clean and en/dures for / ever;
the judgements of the Lord are true and / righteous / alto/gether.
More to be desired are they than gold,

more than / much fine / gold,
sweeter also than honey, / dripping / from the / honeycomb.
By them also is your / servant / taught and in keeping them / there is / great re/ward.
Who can tell how often / they of/fend?
O cleanse me / from my / secret / faults!
Keep your servant also from pre/sumptuous / sins
lest they get do/minion / over / me;
so shall I be / unde/iled,
and / innocent of / great o/ffence.
Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart
be acceptable / in your / sight,
O Lord, my / strength and / my re/deemer.

Hebrews 7.23-end

Furthermore, the former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office; but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues for ever. Consequently he is able for all time to save those who approach God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them.

For it was fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, blameless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. Unlike the other high priests, he has no need to offer sacrifices day after day, first for his own sins, and then for those of the people; this he did once for all when he offered himself. For the law appoints as high priests those who are subject to weakness, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect for ever.

Mark 10.46-end

The Healing of Blind Bartimaeus

They came to Jericho. As he and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, 'Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!' Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, 'Son of David, have mercy on me!' Jesus stood still and said, 'Call him here.' And they called the blind man, saying to him, 'Take heart; get up, he is calling you.' So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. Then Jesus said to him, 'What do you want me to do for you?' The blind man said to him, 'My teacher, let me see again.' Jesus said to him, 'Go; your faith has made you well.' Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way.

Readings for next Sunday, 31 October (All Saints' Day)

Wisdom 3.1-9 or Isaiah 25.6-9; Psalm 24.1-6; Revelation 21.1-6a; John 11.32-44

This week is school half term week. There will be no Morning Prayer and no Meditation Group.

We plan to hold another Bring & Buy sale on Saturday 30 October between 10 am and 12 noon. It will be outside and weather permitting. We will need lots of help, and if you can volunteer with setting up, helping on the day, or making cakes, please contact Pam Butler asap on 07745 591235 or email pambutler27@hotmail.com.

You are invited to our All Souls' Service on Tuesday 2 November at 7.30 pm in church. If you are unable to come but would like someone to be remembered on your behalf please let Steve know.

Refreshments after church - it would be lovely to bring these back! If you'd like to help, please talk to Anne or Rosie. At the moment it would have to happen outside, weather permitting.

Flames Faith Formation Group - Last Autumn we had an outdoor youth group which met in the church garden for a fire and activities. After this half term holiday we'd like to offer something similar but with a focus on the Big Questions of faith (as well as toasting marshmallows). There will be the option to be confirmed, but no expectation! The group would meet after school on Fridays with a snack and down time before some content and end with a campfire (weather permitting!). Let Anne or Steve know if your young person would like to come along.

From January, Anne has been asked to cover for six months for one of the chaplains at Trinity College who will be on maternity leave. This is an opportunity for her to exercise her ministry in a different setting, but she expects to come back to St James's after the placement to finish her curacy.

Banner. Special thanks to Jacqui Worster and family for putting up the banner and to all who contributed. Do come and have a closer look.

You may like to look on the Ely Diocese website for coverage of the new banner:

Food Hub. Yesterday was the first of our 'Community Hub' dates, and it will operate every Saturday between 10 am and 12 noon. We will serve tea/coffee from the Nave offering people a chance to chat alongside food collection. The tea and coffee is for all comers, including members of St James' congregation – please drop in if you can! The range of food on offer will be more limited but the basics will still be available, including refrigerated items, for those who are struggling to pay for provisions.

Donations will still be most welcome and these now need to be dropped off at church on Saturday mornings between 9 am and 10 am. Thank you.

The office is closed this week and will re-open on Monday 1 November, usual times.

Communion Hymn

1

Amazing grace! How sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me.
I once was lost, but now I'm found,
was blind, but now I see.

Through many dangers, toils and snares
I have already come:
'tis grace that brought me safe thus far,
and grace will lead me home.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
and grace my fears relieved;
how precious did that grace appear the hour I first believed.

The Lord has promised good to me,
his word my hope secures;
he will my shield and portion be
as long as life endures.

When we've been there a thousand years,
bright shining as the sun,
we've no less days to sing God's praise
than when we first begun.
